

COURT DIGS UP $2; COUPLE MARRIED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 15.—Considering that the best welfare of the couple demanded that they be married, and discovering that the groom, M. R. Ponce, had no money, Judge Reeve, of the juvenile court, produced a dollar and handed it to Bailiff Reeder.

Take Mr. Ponce and his bride-to-be to the marriage bureau and pay for a license," the court said.

"I'll have to have another dollar," explained Mr. Reeder.

Judge Reeve gazed pensively at Deputy District Attorney Joos and Attorney William Clary.

Mr. Clary dug up 55 cents and Mr. Joos 60 cents.

Then Ponce and the mother of his children were married.

FOCH WAS "SET,"

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Describing the situation at the front, the military correspondent of the British Wireless Service says:

"Marshal Foch had prepared a further great attack east of the Meuse, which would undoubtedly have dealt the enemy a decisive blow. When the armistice was concluded, therefore, the Germans were faced with imminent disaster, and the only course open to them was to surrender at discretion."

"The German army appears to be in a state of extreme confusion, but the five days' respite which has been granted may enable the Germans to organize their lines of communication and carry out the withdrawal of their troops."

"Whatever happens, no organized or effective resistance can under any circumstances be offered by the German army, but if the troops refuse to acknowledge the authority of their present commanders and the army should disintegrate, the allied armies may still have much work to do."

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Belgian Minister Host to Brilliant Company in Honor of Albert's Day—Activities of Society.

THE minister of Belgium, E. de Cartier de Marchienne, will give a dinner tonight at the legation in celebration of St. Albert's day, the name day of King Albert of Belgium. He will have as guests a distinguished company of men, including the Secretary of State, Robert Lansing.

After their usual found of golf at one of the country clubs this morning, the President and Mrs. Wilson went to the Polo Grounds to see the aerial exhibitions.

The President and Mrs. Wilson occupied the Presidential box at the National last evening and had with them Mrs. Bolling, Miss Bolling, John Randolph Bolling, Mrs. W. H. Bolling, and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Bolling. The President received the French Ambassador, M. Jusserand, yesterday afternoon.

Dance at Embassy.

The Italian Ambassador and Countess di Cellere entertained about 100 young people at a dance last night at the embassy in honor of their daughter, Miss Agnes di Cellere. The guests included a number of the younger members of the diplomatic and official circles and many of the allied officers of the foreign missions and various embassies. Among the guests were Senator Carmen Calderon and her brother, Jose Calderon of Peru, who are house guests of Miss di Cellere. Miss Nancy Lee, Miss Sidney Burleson, Miss Isabel Stettinius, Miss Lefevre, of Panama; Mme. Marquisian, Miss Louise Delano, Miss Sara Price Collier, Miss Joan Ohi, Miss Perin, Miss Perkins, Miss Belle Daruch, Miss Meserve, Mrs. Adams, of New York; Count Bolognani, Italian consul at Chicago, who is visiting the Hon. G. Beville, of Washington, was among the officers.

The embassy was appropriately decorated with flags of Italy and other allied nations and flowers and palms which carried out the Italian national colors. A buffet supper was served at midnight.

Mrs. James A. Drain, wife of Colonel Drain, U. S. A., who is now in France, will present her debutante daughter, Miss Gertrude Virginia Drain, to society at a tea followed by a dance at their home in Massachusetts avenue, on Saturday, December 28. Meanwhile Miss Drain is attending classes at George Washington University.

Mrs. Daniels to Return.

Mrs. Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, who is making a speaking tour of the South and Southeast in the interest of the Y. W. C. A. War Council, is expected back in Washington the latter part of next week. She is in Oklahoma.

Ensign Charles Greene Grimes, U. S. N., and his bride, who was Miss Lucy Burleson, have taken an apartment in the Northumberland, where they will make their home as long as Mr. Grimes is on duty in Washington.

Mrs. T. DeWitt Talmage and her daughter, Mrs. Pitt Scott, are in New York for a visit.

The Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Naon entertained a company at dinner last evening in honor of the Swiss Minister and Mme. Sulzer.

The Minister of Salvador, Dr. Don Rafael Zaldivar, is in New York to pass several days.

Mrs. Henry D. Flood, wife of Congressman Flood of Virginia, will return to Washington about December 1 from her country home in Virginia.

turn to Washington about December 1 from her country home in Virginia.

Mrs. Frederic L. Huidekoper has taken the residence, 1820 Jefferson place, for the winter months. Major Huidekoper is at present in France.

The first exhibition in Washington of the mammoth spectacular film, "Lafayette, We Come," showing America in France, will be given Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Knickerbocker Theater, for the benefit of the Interior Department Soldiers' Convalescent Home, of which Mrs. Lane, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, is head. Mrs. Wilson has signed her intention of being present and the benefit promises to be unusually brilliant.

Mrs. Henry Tilghman Bull entertained at luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday. Her guests were Mrs. Frank McIntyre, Mrs. Francis Winter, Mrs. Seaton Schroeder, Mrs. William Glasgow, Mrs. Richard Wainwright, Mrs. D. Lochridge, Mrs. W. S. Finley, Mrs. Truman Murphy, Mrs. Arthur Casella, Mrs. Aubrey Lippincott and Mrs. Dallas Beche Wainwright, mother of the hostess.

Mrs. Bull is staying at the home of Mrs. Wainwright in Kalorama road while her husband, Colonel Bull, U. S. A., is on duty at Camp Meade.

Dr. and Mrs. William Gerry Morgan are established for the winter in their home, 1451 Belmont street, with their daughters, Miss Myra Morgan and Miss Ruth Morgan.

Given Farewell Dinner.

William E. Ferguson, of Havana, Cuba, was the guest of honor at dinner last evening given by a party of associates and friends in the Diplomatic Corps here. It was very well attended and was a farewell to him on the eve of his departure for overseas service with the American Red Cross.

Former Senator and Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge will spend the winter in Boston, where they have leased the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Thorn dyke, who have taken an apartment at the Vendome in Boston. Mrs. Beveridge has made a recent visit in Washington to her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Hamlin.

Stephen B. Elkins attended the performance last night of "The Canary" at the Globe Theater in New York.

Four American diplomats were among the brilliant audience attending the opera, "The Daughter of the Regiment," at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, last night. They were Henry White, once ambassador to France; Frederic Courtland Penfield, and James W. Gerard, who were ambassadors, respectively, to Austria and Germany at the time when the United States entered the war; and John Wallace Riddle, who represented the United States in Russia and the Balkans.

Mr. and Mrs. Penfield occupied a box and had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Edison Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. M. Cardeza. Mr. Cardeza was Mr. Penfield's private secretary in Vienna. Mr. and Mrs. Riddle and Mr. White were guests of Mrs. William Douglas Sloane in their box. Mr. and Mrs. Gerard, Mr. R. Horace Gallatin and Harry S. Black were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mather MacNeill in their box.

Dr. Franz to Speak.

One of the most interesting of the series of Friday afternoon lectures given at the Theodoros Bailey Meyers Mason House, 1606 Twentieth street, in connection with the reconstruction crafts work, will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Dr. Franz, of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, as the speaker. All those interested are invited to attend.

The speaker next Friday will be George Julian Zolney, the noted sculptor.

The Southern Society of Washington, under the presidency of Dr. Clarence J. Owens, has announced that a "Victory Reception" in honor of the army and navy, and in celebration of the world peace through the achievements of the army and navy of the United States will be tendered at the Wardman Park Hotel, Connecticut avenue and Woodley road, Tuesday, November 26. The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy have accepted invitations to be the guests
